

Commended Entry Certificate

Five Stars were awarded to

Raymond Shaw

for the song

Tristesse

This is to certify that Tristesse is a Commended Entry in the Instrumental category in the UK Songwriting Contest 2020. This song was carefully examined by expert music industry judges and they have awarded Raymond Shaw this certificate for participating in the contest in 2020 and for contributing to its continued success as a leading international annual songwriting event.

The UK Songwriting Contest was formed in association with The BRIT Trust and other music industry organisations. It is held annually with support from some of the biggest names in the UK and international music communities.
